Terms of R&D co-operation

Kuopio Water Cluster (KWC, the cluster) is a comprehensive organization providing product development, testing and commercialization services to meet current challenges of innovations in the water sector.

With the membership, the Membership's Company and KWC aim at long-term R&D co-operation to address water sector challenges. Through membership, the cluster offers its members the following benefits:

- ✓ Cost-effective pricing for R&D services: laboratory testing and piloting services, laboratory space as well as analytical services
- ✓ One-door access to a network of specialized laboratories and research partners within KWC networks
- ✓ Networking opportunity and access to cooperation platform, including start-ups, SMEs and large firms
- ✓ Possibility to participate in preparation for national and international funding programs
- ✓ Invitation to KWC events, including seminars, trainings, and networking events
- ✓ Access to first-hand information on trends in the water sector
- ✓ Newsletter of current topics
- ✓ Possibility to get publicity during events organized by KWC (e.g.: showrooms, videos, posters or presentations)
- ✓ Visibility on the KWC website
- ✓ Access to prospective talented employees: students, interns, and young professionals within KWC networks, brings universities and research institutes focusing on the water sector together into a top multi-disciplinary RDI ecosystem

The above mentioned services are provided to the membership companies. At the moment the membership of KWC is free of charge.
